Every woman should have one...

Convenience, at last.

"The Whiz is an answer to my prayers."
Mary F. Oxford

"Thank you for solving such a very difficult problem."
Gillian M. Aberdeen

"I've been waiting for this product all my life!"
Janelle S. Birmingham

AS SEEN ON ITV1

Giving women the freedom to pass urine wherever and whenever they choose, without the hassle. Just like guys. The Whiz is made from soft, flexible, antibacterial hydrophobic material so that it's reusable, hygienic and easy to tuck away in a pocket or handbag. And because of its medical urine collection version – the Whiz UCD – are fully NHS-approved.

The Whiz is a necessity in your glove compartment, your handbag or your suitcase. That's why you'll find it in the accessory you will ever buy. Lots of women know about it already – why don't you?
